BENJAMIN F. (TAD) EDWARDS IV

Tad is the Chairman and CEO of Benjamin F. Edwards & Company, which was created in 2008 to provide securities brokerage, investment, and financial advisory services primarily to retail clients. He graduated from Trinity University and then joined A.G. Edwards, Inc. where he held various management positions including president. Prior to being acquired in 2007, A.G. Edwards, Inc. had been honored by Fortune Magazine for being named for ten years in a row as one of the 100 best companies to work for in America.

Tad continues a tradition of family talent in the brokerage business that began with Albert Gallatin Edwards, who founded the A.G. Edwards and Sons brokerage firm in 1887 after being appointed by Abraham Lincoln and serving as the Assistant Secretary of Treasury of the U.S. in St. Louis. Tad and his wife, Catherine, have a daughter, Hadley, and a son, Benjamin V.
