DUANE SMITH

Duane was born and raised in Louisiana. He left home at the age of 16 and became addicted to alcohol at 18. It was then that he decided to take his mother's advice and get help. A pastor wisely directed him to the Teen Challenge Ministry, and this is where the Lord changed his life completely. His faith came alive, he was freed of the addiction, and he stayed on longer to help others. After nearly two years at Teen Challenge, he pursued and earned a degree from Central Bible College in Springfield, MO. He then became a pastor, first in Crowley, LA, then in Washington, MO, and most recently at the South County Christian Center in St. Louis.

Duane is an Equipment Specialist Sales Representative with Midwest Aerials & Equipment, which handles the sale and rental of various models of aerial manlifts. He enjoys ice hockey, which he plays regularly, and leads a Bible Study known as "Hockey Players for Christ". Come hear a wonderful story.
