DANNY AND PAM LISTON

Danny and Pam Liston are St. Louis treasures who are both sold out for the Lord Jesus. Danny joined his first band at the age of 14 and as a recording artist eventually became well known for his "Southern Rocker" style and his great musical talent. He and his brother formed the group known as Mama's Pride, which became hugely successful. With fame and fortune, however, came drug and alcohol addictions that nearly destroyed his life.

Danny and Pam own and manage the well regarded Seamus McDaniels Restaurant in Dogtown, which has been in operation for nearly 25 years. They have been married for over 29 years and have four children: Nathan, Sean, Tim and Angelique. Pam accepted the Lord first, and a few years later Danny made the same decision. The changes they experienced from emptiness to a passion for serving the Lord have been truly miraculous. Come and experience true Christmas cheer as you hear their story.
