CHUCK PRICE

Chuck Price is a native St. Louisan, who spent many summers in Meridian Mississippi, learning the tradition of his family. Chuck attended Holy Rosary School for his elementary training where he found success in Catholic Education.

Chuck continued his education at Mercy High School, where he played football and basketball and began his career in drawing and painting. Chuck finished two degrees after high school. His undergraduate was done at Central Missouri State University, where he attained a degree in Physical Education. His second was a Masters degree in Education at the University of Missouri in St. Louis. Chuck started attending Kanakuk Christian Athletic Camps in 1978, where he and many of his friends were invited to share in the love and salvation of Jesus Christ. He later became a counselor, athletic director, and programs director for the camp.

Chuck has also worked 20 years in education including jobs at Our Lady of Lourdes, Villa Duchesne, John Burroughs School, and The Fulton School in St. Albans, where he built their athletic program in three years. Chuck now lives in Universtiy City, MO, where he works in a small family business, Thompson Construction.

ERNIE TRAKAS

Ernie is a partner with Mickes Goldman & O'Toole, LLC, which this year was named one of the best law firms in the country by U.S. News and World Report. He was born in Washington, D.C. and earned a degree in political science from Wheeling College and a law degree from George Mason University. He was staff counsel for the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce of the U. S. House of Representatives and then a public defender representing indigent criminal defendants.

Over the years, Ernie abandoned a church upbringing and focused on making money. The money grew, but so did a Godless void in his life. Fifteen years ago, Ernie met his wife, Lori, which led to going back to church, studying the Bible, and attending the 1999 Billy Graham Crusade in St. Louis. At this Crusade, Ernie surrendered his life to Jesus. His wife, Lori, and his daughter, Allyson, can attest to the fact that he is a new creature in Christ. When Franklin Graham came to St. Louis recently, Ernie and Lori served as counselors and led several young people to Christ. The void has been completely filled.
