RON & RUBY BOYER

Ronald Boyer spent much of his early adult years in state and federal prison; but in April, 1989, God got Ron's attention at a rural Southern Baptist Church, where he heard the Gospel. Ron responded by faith to Jesus Christ, and God transformed His life. Since then he has attended Bible College and Seminary, where he earned a BA in Pastoral Ministry and is currently finishing his M.Div. Ruby's life too was radically transformed by the power of God. Born and raised in Venezuela, she was an Assistant Principal and school teacher. In 1984 God revealed Himself to Ruby, and she by faith received Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior.

Ron and Ruby were married on June 5, 1997. They founded the City of Refuge Prison Ministry at Kingshighway Baptist Church in 2005. Currently Ron is Senior Pastor at New Melle Baptist Church, Board Chairman at Brookes Bible College, Volunteer Chaplain with Missouri Department of Corrections (10 years), and on the Church Relations Committee of St. Louis Metro Baptist Association.

Please join us on February 16 as Ron proclaims the Life-Transforming Power of the Gospel (Romans 1:16-18).
