KENNETH MccLAMB

Kenneth is the CEO/Founder for the Ark of Safety Center in St. Louis city.

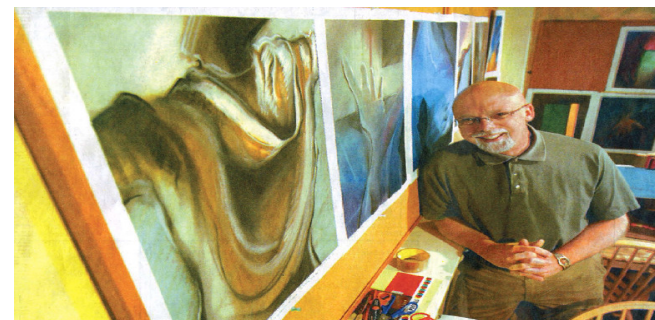

Kenneth and his team provide transitional housing and recovery support services as an ATR service provider and he is a member of the substance abuse network here in Missouri. He works and has provided beds for re-entry, probation and parole people in recovery. Kenneth and his volunteers worked with both men and women that are homeless.

Being a humble man of God, Kenneth will tell you how he went to the school of hard Knox's hip, and graduated from knee-bone college and has attended the Holy Spirit University and is now bounty hunter for Jesus Christ.

Come and hear how God is changing lives through this After Care Jail and Prison Ministry. You will be blessed.

BERT VANDERMARK

Bert is the gifted founder of Studio Montage, a creative graphic firm based in St. Louis, MO. He was born in the Netherlands and received a formal Fine Art degree from the Royal Academy of Fine Arts in The Hague. He earned a combined Masters Degree in Fine Arts and Graphic Design from Washington State University and has extensive teaching experience in Graphic Design and Illustration techniques.

Bert and his wife, Judi, have been married for 20 years and have three creative and delightful teenagers. His faith in Jesus has compelled him to encourage a broad range of artistic expressions of Christian themes. He has helped launch the Creative Art Fellowship, and serves at Mercy Ministries, a ministry of care and counseling to young women. Join us and bring along those you know who enjoy drawing, painting, poetry, music, photography, film, short stories, dance, etc. All these God given gifts can be used to honor Him.
