Robert D. Arb has been an attorney for 38 years. He practices in the areas of personal injury, workers' compensation, and wills, trusts and probate at his office in Valley Park, Missouri. He is licensed to practice in Missouri, Illinois and the Federal Courts. Robert has also received certification as a Christian mediator by Peacemaker Ministries. He has served as a Federal Court mediator for constitutional law disputes. Mr. Arb has taught as an instructor at Meramec Community College and at several continuing legal education seminars. He is author of the articles, "Should A Christian Sue" and "Mediating Disputes Among Christians".

Robert is married to his wife Cindy and has three children – Nicole, Caleb and Michael. Mr. Arb's volunteer activities include serving on the Board of Directors for The Mission Gate Prison Ministry and for Orphans' Assistance and Rescue (an orphanage in northern Thailand). Mr. Arb is a founding member of the St. Louis Chapter of the Christian Legal Society. He also served as School Board President for Faith Community Christian High School in Fenton, Missouri from 2007-2010. Robert Arb attends Oakbridge Community Church. He is an avid outdoorsman and has completed two marathons after age 60.

Please join us on January 20 to hear Robert's story.
