TERRY JOGGERST

Terry Joggerst was born and raised as a Catholic in Saint Louis, Mo.

Terry graduated from University of Missouri with a degree in Mechanical Engineering and worked for Winchester ammunition for 41 years in various positions of management. What was important to him in his early years was education and career. He was a work alcoholic and it almost cost him his marriage. Come hear how he met Jesus in a dramatic way in 1977 at the FGBMFI convention in Saint Louis and how it saved him and his marriage.

Terry has been married to Diana Joggerst for nearly 47 years; they have three sons and 14 grandchildren.

He and his wife were youth pastors for 11 years and have recently returned to youth ministry again. He is also in charge of the men's ministry in his church that meets every Thursday morning at O'Leary's Bar and Grill on South Lindberg. He also volunteers at First Light to help men get free from pornography and sexual addiction.

Come and hear how Jesus saved him and his whole family and gave him a life filled with purpose and passion.
