DANIEL C. WARD

From Syringes and Guns to Badge and Handcuffs

As he was growing up, he knew he was not getting what he needed at home. He hated himself and every one around him. He lived his life all about him to get cars, money and drugs. A former drug dealer, Dan was beaten with his own gun and left for dead. His house buddy drove him to the hospital. There he came face to face with his mother who was on duty as the ER nurse. He was not the father and husband his wife desired of him. Making poor choices and taking his marriage for granted resulted in divorce court.

Dan is happily remarried to Janeal. They enjoy their lives together with their two handsome sons and their three beautiful grand daughters. Former Deputy Sheriff and Former Chaplain of a Motorcycle Ministry, Dan is a traveling Evangelist, President of Twin Rivers WORD Masters Toastmasters Club and Director of the Twin Rivers Evangelism & Outreach Motorcycle Ministry. You cannot talk to Dan without seeing and hearing the love of God. Remember to invite and bring a quest. Be Blessed.

Come and meet the man and hear how God changed his life.
