MIKE FARLEY

Mike Farley grew up in a Christian home in western Ohio. His mother was a band director, piano teacher, and music director of a large church, and Mike grew up playing piano and trombone and singing in choirs.

Mike majored in chemistry at Wittenberg University in Ohio and then studied biochemistry in graduate school at Indiana University. Mike came to St. Louis in 1996 to prepare for ministry at Covenant Theological Seminary. Always an active musician, Mike developed a love for leading worship in local churches and at the seminary chapel.

Mike earned a Ph.D. at Saint Louis University, where his research focused on the history and theology of Christian worship. After teaching theology for several years at SLU, Mike entered full-time ministry at Central Presbyterian Church, where he serves as Pastor of Worship and Arts. He also teaches courses in worship at Covenant Seminary.

Mike has been married to his wife Linda for 19 years, and they have three children: Caleb (13), Rachel (10), and Lydia (9).

Mike's enthusiasm and joy in his faith is contagious. Join us for breakfast and catch the joy!
