KYLE TILLEY

Kyle is the Executive Director of Project 58, a non-profit ministry committed to bringing hope to those suffering. He is also Web Producer at Joyce Meyer Ministries and part of the Creative Arts Department at Crosspoint Church. Kyle was born and raised in the South County area of St. Louis. He worked in landscaping while in college and earned a B.A. degree in Organizational Communication at the University of Missouri, St. Louis. Kyle and his wife, Amy, were blessed with their first child in December. Amy is a 5th grade teacher in the Rockwood School District and now a new Mom.

The Project 58 ministry operates internationally with feeding programs and efforts to curtail human trafficking and provide hope for displaced people. See www.Project58.org. (Kyle is currently training for a “Tough Mudder”, a half marathon with military obstacles.)
