BOB HOWARD

Bob owns and operates O'Fallon Electronics, a television repair business located in O'Fallon, Missouri. His story is a dramatic one of miracles and a total transformation. Before a horrific experience on a cold night, he had been a thief, a drug smuggler, and a Golden Glove boxer who hurt people for money and did business with violent, corrupt men. The change came when he was crushed and left in a commercial trash compactor that no one knew he was in. With his last breath of life, he called out: "Save me Jesus".

Two days after the accident, Bob and his longtime girlfriend, Jan, were married in the hospital, where he remained for a year with massive injuries. With little encouragement of ever living a normal life again, Bob began studying electronics at Florissant Valley Community College, then obtained an SBA loan to start a business, and two years later, was awarded the Most Outstanding Business of the Year at the Annual SBA Convention. Bob loves the Lord Jesus with all his heart, soul and body, and is grateful to Him for his lovely wife, their son Bobby, and the mercy he was shown.
