SAM TOUMAYAN

Sam Toumayan is the founder, president and chairman of St. Louis based Meridian Enterprises Corp. which for over 30 years has provided marketing, sales promotional and consumer loyalty programs to both domestic and foreign corporations. Meridian has been an industry innovator and was awarded one of the first three method patents by the U. S. Patent and Trade Mark office. One of Meridian's patents is used extensively by major card issuing banks throughout the United States.

Born in Cairo, Egypt, to Armenian parents, Sam attended St. George's College in Cairo and York University in Toronto, Canada. He and his wife, Barbara, have one son named Greg. Sam's strong faith in God and his Christian upbringing have played a major role throughout his life when making both business and personal decisions. Bring a friend and hear how God has guided and blessed one of His followers.
