RUSS FIEDLER

Russ Fiedler was born in 1930 in Wellston, MO, and was born again in 1956 in Washington, DC. He served in the US Marine Corps during the Korean war from 1951 to 1953. Russ drove a cab in Washington, DC, for about 12 years and was able to share his testimony with about 10,000 customers.

In 1969 Russ walked into radio station WFAX and talked to the owner about buying 15 minutes of air time every day to read from the New Testament without comment. That broadcast continues to this day.

Russ and his wife Barb have a Christian bumper sticker ministry in which they send out stickers free of charge to the US and many countries of the world. They have Christian bumper stickers in about 40 languages. Their ministry website is christianbumpersticker.org.

Please join us at Miss Sheri's on November 18 to hear Russ' testimony.
