ZACHARY FAY

Born in St. Louis, Zach graduated from John Burroughs School, received an undergraduate business degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and earned Master degrees in both divinity and business from Regent University. Before founding the startup company that has developed Lightgliders, Zach worked in management consulting at Deloitte Consulting in New York and in youth ministry at Greentree Community Church in St. Louis. Zach lives in University City with his wife Margaret, who is a counselor at CrossRoads Counseling Center, and his 1-year-old son, Charlie.

Zach heard the gospel at a young age through a series of meaningful conversations with his father. For Zach, life has been an adventure filled with amazing victories and humiliating failures. He has found that significance comes not from what we do but from what Jesus did at the cross. Come hear how the cross gives us hope and purpose!

Zach Fay is the creator of Lightgliders, a digital world of Christian faith, fun, and games for kids found at www.lightgliders.com and in the iOS and Google Play stores. He created Lightgliders to provide a culturally relevant and globally distributed way to impact kids with the gospel before their teenage years and to strengthen the quality of conversations happening in the home. Recently featured on The 700 Club, Lightgliders is engaging kids in six continents.
