STEVEN MOSELEY

The September speaker for the St. Louis chapter is Rev. Steven Moseley. Steve is the pastor of Maplewood Baptist Church, having served since December 2004. Steve has been in pastoral ministry for ten years and in ministry for 19 years total. Steve currently serves as a volunteer police chaplain with the Maplewood Police Department.

In November 2008 Steve started Corporate Compassion, a chaplaincy company to work in the business world. The need of employers and employees is tremendous. The hunger for spiritual truth is great and fewer and fewer people are turning to the church to find their way to the life changing Gospel of Jesus Christ. You can visit Corporate Compassion's website at www.corporatecompassion.com.

Steve is married to Lisa who serves as Program Coordinator at Lydia's House. They have two children, Brandon and Brittany. Invite a friend to this dinner meeting as Steve shares his personal testimony and encourage all served the Lord.
