ZACH FAY

Zach is the founder and president of Kingdom Scene, a company created to impact kids in a culturally relevant and global manner. In July of this year, Kingdom Scene launched its first product, a virtual world game called Lightgliders, which can be visited at www.lightgliders.com. Lightgliders was strategically designed to encourage faith and values in kids ages 7 to 13 and has already been visited by folks in over 40 countries.

Born in St. Louis, Zach graduated from John Burroughs School, received an undergraduate business degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and earned Master degrees in both divinity and business from Regent University. Before founding Kingdom Scene, he worked in management consulting at Deloitte Consulting in New York and in youth ministry at Greentree Community Church here in St. Louis.

Zach responded to the gospel at a young age and is passionate about the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. For Zach, life has been adventurous, filled with amazing victories and humiliating failures. He has found that significance comes not from what we do but from what Jesus did at the cross. Come hear how the message of the cross changed a man's life.
